

Careium Business Ethics policy

Code of conduct

This document includes policies for Quality, Environment, Information security and Occupational health and safety

Version 3

Careium Business Ethics policy applies to all people who work for Careium group, both employees and consultants, regardless if permanently employed or temporarily contracted, and also students and voluntary workforce.

Careium companies may have additional policies, but the requirements in this document must always be met.

General rules for all

Values

At Careium, we are proud to follow the values of the company: Show Care – Act Smart – Be Heroes.

We do this to work towards our vision: “All our users live a richer life, feel confident, secure and cared for.”

Anti corruption.

At Careium, all forms of corruption are strictly forbidden, including but not limited to extortion, bribery, nepotism, fraud, and money laundering.

Conflicts of interest.

No employee may be involved in an activity or hold a position outside Careium that is in conflict with the company's business interests. Such conflicts of interest could also include directorships, significant shareholdings, or the employment of family members.

Human rights

We support the principles contained within the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the OECD Guidelines for Multinational Enterprises, and the ILO Core Conventions on Labour Standards.

When representing Careium, we strive to respect all individuals and their human rights, no matter who they are.

Prohibition of harassment and abusive behaviour.

Careium does not tolerate any form of harassment or violence in the workplace, and the use of forced labour and child labour is strictly prohibited in all company operations.

A process and contacts are clearly defined and communicated in the event that harassment and abusive behaviour should occur. Control of compliance is the responsibility of each line manager and follow up is done in employee surveys twice a year.

Whistleblowing

Everyone can report anonymously anything you suspect may violate laws, other requirements or this code directly to a manager, to an employee organisation, or through Careium's reporting channel, without any risk of reprisals.

The Whistleblower service is handled by an external party and the notifications are read by a person with statutory confidentiality. The report channel is found at the external web, including full Whistleblower information.

How we treat our employees

Enabling and empowering employees and consultants of Careium to fully contribute to the company's development is the responsibility of all managers within the Careium Group.

Occupational health and safety policy for Careium group

We want to

- promote good health among our employees,
- create a good and safe work environment for all,
- enable employees affected by diagnosed medical conditions to work on their terms by adjusting the work situation, as appropriate

We believe in a connection between health, productivity, and quality.

CEO has the ultimate responsibility for occupational health and safety in the company, but each employee and consultant, regardless of position, has a responsibility to promote the common good work environment and a good company culture.

We enforce existing health and safety legislation and other applicable regulations and requirements.

Occupational health and safety work is conducted as a natural part of daily work, and also as a systematic approach in which we conduct regular surveys of the work environment and implement and follow up the decided action.

Equal opportunities and non-discrimination.

Employees are recruited and promoted solely on the basis of their qualifications for the job, regardless of race, religion, age, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, political opinion, union membership, marital status or disability unrelated to the task in question. Careium encourages the positive contribution a diversity of background and experience gives. Control of compliance is done in an evaluation about equal opportunities.

Freedom of association and the right to collective bargaining.

Employees have the right to union membership.

Work-life balance.

Where appropriate, Careium supports flexible work schedules and part-time arrangements.

Employment security

Careium commits to ensure employment security and responsible workforce restructuring. We use responsible redundancy procedures following legal requirements and union agreements in the countries where we operate. We strive to minimise redundancies, and if they are necessary, we shall select people objectively, fairly and not discriminate.

Compensation and development.

Each employee shall be rewarded in a correct and fair manner in accordance with their individual performance and behaviour, and contribution to the success of the company. All employees shall be offered opportunities for appropriate development to help them acquire relevant skills, grow within the company and progress their careers. Annual development talks are done with the closest manager, where training plans, targets and follow-up is discussed.

Employee consultation.

Careium strives to maintain good communications with each employee through company information and dialogue.

Customer relations

Quality policy for Careium group

Careium is committed to delivering products and services that answer real needs and enables users to continue doing the things they have always enjoyed doing.

Careium delivers premium products and services. Always with the end user's needs of simplicity and quality at heart.

We continuously improve our products and ways of working, to provide high and consistent quality, ensuring we meet legal requirements in our different markets.

To achieve this, we aspire to

- evaluate customers needs to fulfill their requirements
- regard both our products and services as expressions of our quality
- inform and train our employees and suppliers, to understand the importance of quality
- actively seek feedback on products and ways of working

Customer satisfaction

Loyal, satisfied customers are the basis of our reputation. Honesty and integrity in all dealings with customers are prerequisites for profitable, long-term business relationships.

Marketing

Careium will provide customers with accurate product and services information, and will only make commitments about our products or our company that we can live up to. Our marketing shall be truthful, not misleading, accurate and balanced. Marketing communications shall be clearly distinguishable as such. We shall not make unsubstantiated product claims, e.g. environmental or health claims.

Gifts and favours.

At Careium, gifts, entertainment, compensation, and personal favours may be offered to a third party only if they are modest in value and consistent with customary business practice. Cash may never be used as a gift. No gifts, entertainment or personal favours may be offered in contravention of any applicable law or code of practice. Gifts that do not meet the above criteria should be reported immediately to Careium management, who shall determine what measures should be taken. Customers are encouraged to use the Whistleblower function to report violations.

Supplier relations

As a company, we are responsible for our selection of suppliers.

New suppliers are evaluated regarding environment, social and governance performance, and shall sign the Careium ESG Policy for suppliers.

Gifts and favours

No employee should seek or accept any gift, entertainment or personal favour that might reasonably be believed to have an influence on business transactions. No gifts, entertainment or personal favours may be accepted in contravention of any applicable law or code of practice. Cash may never be received as a gift. Gifts that do not meet the above criteria should be reported to management, who shall determine how the matter will be dealt with. Suppliers are encouraged to use the Whistle blower function to report violations.

Supplier behaviour

Careium will inform business partners of the company's values and business principles.

We will not do business with suppliers that fail to comply with

- applicable local legislation, and
- requirements put on them in contracts and the Careium ESG Policy for suppliers.

Control of suppliers

Careium does audits and follow up according to contracts. Non-compliance found at audits, whistle-blower action or other input will not be publicly reported but will be reported back to the supplier and can lead to ending of the contracts. We will not audit indirect suppliers in the extended supply chain but will require and control that our suppliers do relevant controls in the supply chain.

Society

Legal compliance and local customs.

Careium employees must comply with all the applicable laws and regulations of a country in which the company and the employee operates. In cases where a conflict exists between more restrictive laws and this Code's principles and values, the law shall prevail. We will respect the local traditions and customs of each country. In cases where there is a conflict between local customs and this Code's principles and values, the Code shall guide the employee's course of action.

Careium respects intellectual property rights of others. If infringements on intellectual property rights are identified Careium's intention is to search for acceptable license agreement.

Community involvement and contributions.

Careium seeks to make a positive and sustainable contribution to the communities in which we conduct business. Employees are encouraged to participate in community affairs, but the company does not support political parties or make political donations

Fair competition and integrity

Careium conducts business operation in line with fair competition; Not participating in any form of bid rigging or other mechanisms that limit fair competition in tender situations, any form of cartel practices with competitors, such as dividing or allocating markets or customers or price fixing.

Taxes

Careium group prohibits tax avoidance through transfer pricing, and we are committed not to be present in tax jurisdictions enabling tax base erosion and profit shifting.

Environment

Environmental policy for Careium group

Careium strives to offer products and services that meet customer requirements for safety and quality with a low impact to the environment
